DR. TERESITA G. DOMALANTA

Director IV

Department of Education, NCR

Misamis St., Bago Bantay, Quezon City

Dear Dr. Domalanta:

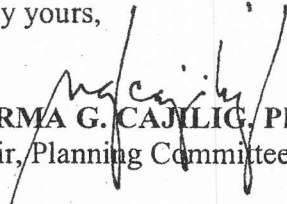

The UP College of Education (UPCED) is sponsoring the National Conference on Research in Teacher Education (NCRTE) to be held on October 20 and 21, 2011 at UPCED's Benitez Theater. This year's theme is New Trends in Teacher Education: Toward Enhancing Teacher Quality.

We would like to invite you and the administrators, faculty and students of the teacher education institutions in the National Capital Region to attend this conference thereby promoting the upliftment of Filipino teachers. We also welcome research papers for presentation during the parallel sessions. For more details, please refer to the attached Conference brochure and Abstract Submission Guidelines. You may also log on to <http://www.ncrte.org>.

Thank you in anticipation of your favorable response to this invitation.

More power!

Truly yours,

OBJECTIVES

- * To provide a forum for examining critical issues in education that affect the nation.
- * To provide an opportunity for pre-service and practicing teachers to share research findings on new trends, experiences, and best practices in teaching and learning.
- * To strengthen institutional goals in research and encourage dissemination and utilization of research findings.
- * To identify emerging challenges and opportunities that may lead to the development of new strategies in educational policies, plans and programs, and mobilization of resources.
- * To build a community and network of researchers and educators to develop plans for future actions.

THE NATIONAL CONFERENCE
ON RESEARCH IN TEACHER
EDUCATION (NCRTE) HAS BEEN
HELD BIENNIALY SINCE 1997.
IT HAS SERVED AS A VENUE
FOR DISCUSSIONS ON EDUCATIONAL ISSUES BASED ON RESEARCH FINDINGS.
