Dear Dr. DOMALANTA:

Greetings from the Iota Phi Foundation, Inc!

We, of Iota Philippines the only Honor Society in Counseling in our country with SEC registration # 184633, accredited by the Professional Regulatory Board of Guidance and Counseling (PRBGC) of the Philippine Regulation Commission (PRC) and member of the Council for Continuing Professional Education (CCPE) also accredited as CPE provider in the field of counseling will hold the Midyear seminar-workshop on the theme "Transcending the Challenges of the Counseling Profession" on October 14 - 16, 2009 at Silliman University on Hibbard Avenue, Dumaguete City, Negros Oriental.

In this connection, may we request that your licensed and still to be licensed guidance and counseling practitioners be allowed to participate on either official time only or with assistance for the lowest registration fee (attached) and advisory from DepEd (also attached) for the following reasons:

1. Republic Act 9258 and its Implementing Rules and Regulations (IRR) require all guidance and counseling practitioners in whatever position in the counseling profession to be registered licensed guidance counselors (RLGC) and to engage in continuing professional education (CPE) via approved offerings conducted by PRC/PRBGC Accredited CPE Providers such as Iota Phi and the APO nation.
2. All the registered licensed guidance counselors, like other groups of professionals, are mandated to earn the required number of credit units through approved training programs, seminars, conference-workshops, round-table clinics, symposia, and the like conducted by PRC-accredited continuing professional education providers, not only for license renewal but also to keep abreast with the unending challenges, and developing competencies concomitant for the 21st century professional guidance counselor.
3. As the SEC-registered and Accredited CPE Provider by the PRC/PRBGC, Iota Philippines swworks to promote its mission of advancing the counseling profession in six areas of concern for the Filipino guidance and counseling professionals the opportunity to become globally competitive and internationally recognized.

Counting on your unsullied commitment to counseling excellence, on the advisory of Hon. DepEd Secretary, and on behalf of the Iota Phi-CSI Executive Board, I thank you for the favor in this respect.

Very truly yours,

Leticia Aquino-Rebillon
